Dear Dr. Irina Molodikova,

I would like to express my gratitude for an exciting and stimulating conference you and your colleagues were able to organize. Beyond a shadow of doubt the conference “Twenty five years later (1991-2016): between Soviet past and unclear European and Eurasian future” was a world class conference. We appreciated many stimulating discussions, world-class presentations, well-organized events and most importantly the welcoming environment you have created. It was one of the best conferences I have ever attended. That could only have been achieved by hard work and absolute dedication and we commend you and your team for that!

Thanks for making the conference so worthwhile .

With the very best wishes to you and your team.

Dr. Svetlana Chachashvili-Bolotin
