

CONFLICT TO CONCORD:

President Atifete Jahjaga's Journey Through Post-War Ethnic Tensions

Experience an engaging and intellectually compelling event with Atifete Jahjaga, the esteemed former President of the Republic of Kosovo, as she delves into the intricacies of constructing a narrative of peace. This event will offer a comprehensive understanding of Jahjaga's remarkable journey, ascending to the presidential post at the age of 36. Jahjaga will expound upon her strategic approach towards post-war inter-ethnic reconciliation, elucidating the methodologies she employed in narrative construction to navigate this complex terrain.

Moderated by
Prof. Michael Ignatieff
Rector Emeritus, Professor of History

Monday, 15th of April — 17:00-19:00 — CEU Auditorium

Open hybrid event, webinar
Registration mandatory; scan QR code
Event followed by a reception

