

December 04, 2023 | 17:30 – 19:00
Auditorium & Zoom

LECTURE

Connecting Conversations on Antisemitism, Holocaust, Gender, and Colonialism

This talk addresses the relationships among antisemitism, the Holocaust, colonialism, and gender. Each of these terms becomes a lens through which to examine historical and contemporary forms of exclusion, prejudice, discrimination, race, and hate.

PROF. ANDREA PETO

Andrea Peto is a historian and a Professor at the Department of Gender Studies at CEU, Vienna, Austria, a Research Affiliate of the CEU Democracy Institute, Budapest, and a Doctor of Science of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences.

FOLLOWED BY A WINE RECEPTION

