

Reluctant Decarbonization and Militant Petrostates

Workshop Agenda

09:30-10:00 Registration and Coffee Break

10:00-12:00 Session 1, Global.

Chaired by Valeriia Hesse (OHPA-CEU)

- Alexander Etkind (OHPA-CEU). The oil curse and the state course
- Naosuke Mukoyama (University of Tokio). Colonial oil and the origins of petrostates
- Aleh Cherp (CEU) Do petro-states slow decarbonisation? And if so, how?
- Andreas Folkers (Frankfurt Institute for Social Research). Carbon Bombs

12:00-13:00 Lunch

13:00-14:45 Session 2, European.

Chaired by Ayansina Ayanlade (OHPA-CEU)

- Per Högselius (Royal Institute of Technology Stockholm). The future of Russia-EU energy relations
- Sergii Glebov (Odesa National I.I. Mechnykov University). Oil-for-(in)security: the Kremlin's energy weapon as a peacebreaker in times of hybrid warfare
- Anastasia Pavlenko (CEU). European energy transition in the time of crisis

14:45-15:15 Coffee Break

15:15-17:15 Session 3, Case Studies.

Chaired by Johanna Gautier (OHPA-CEU)

- Henri Kaup (European University Institute). Re-carbonizing Kaliningrad: Putinist Geopolitics and the role of LNG
- Bohdan Shumylovych (Ukrainian Catholic University Lviv), Artem Kharchenko (I.P. Kotlyarevsky Kharkiv National University of Arts). A tale of two cities: Lviv and Kharkiv at war
- Ayansina Ayanlade (OHPA-CEU). Nigeria's Petrostate Dilemma: Challenges and Opportunities
- Dirk Moses (The City University of New York). Military vs. genocidal violence as a problematic distinction

17:15-19:00 Reception