

“Twenty five years later (1991–2016): between Soviet past and unclear European and Eurasian future”

25-26 November, 2016

Budapest, Nador 9. Auditorium 1, Gellner room and Popper room

25 November 2016

Opening ceremony: Rector Michael Ignatieff Greeting Speech 9:30

Greetings from some international organizations:

International Red Cross: Dr. Simon Missiri

Representative of UNHCR (Hungary): Agnes Ambrus

Panel presentations

(Auditorium 1) Nador 9

Dr. Molodikova Irina (CEU)	Migration processes and free movement in the former Socialist countries: old and new realities
Dr. Zaionchkovskaya Zhanna (Institute of economic forecasting, RAS, Moscow)	The dissolution of the USSR: the lessons and new challenges as reflected in migration
Prof. Drobizeva Leokadia (Institute of Sociology, RAS, Moscow)	Ethnic Russians and others in the Russian Federation: attitudes towards migrants

Coffee break 11.30-12.00

Stream I

Gellner room

25 November, Session I, Gellner room: Regional and global migration processes and their influence on CEE countries

Prof. Ivakhnyuk Irina (Global Migration Policy Associates, GMPA)	The impact of the Russian migration policy on human mobility trends and patterns in the post-Soviet Eurasia
Dr. Ryazantsev Sergey V. & Artem S. Lukyanets (Institute Socio-Political Research of RAS, Moscow)	NEW TRENDS OF MIGRATION FROM RUSSIA
Dr. Alexander Iskanderian (Caucasus Institute, Yerevan)	Migrations as a Component of Nation Building in the Post-Soviet South Caucasus

Lunch 13:40 – 14:30

25 November, Session II, Gellner room: Migration processes in the Baltic states

Dr. Lyudmila Nurse , Oxford XXI, UK	Ethnic minorities in the Baltic states: a “bottom up” perspective on the political and cultural changes since 1990-s.
Dr. Ingrida Gečienė (Institute of Social Innovations, Lithuania)	Diaspora potential to contribute for home country development: Lithuanian case
Dr. Krisjane Z., Apsite-Berina E., Berzins M., Sechi G., Krumins J. (University of Latvia)	Challenges of youth migration: lessons from Latvia

Coffee break 16:10 - 16: 40

25 November, Session III, Gellner room: Migration processes in Ukraine and their consequences

Prof. Dušan Drbohlav, Dagmar Džúrová, Zdeněk Čermák, Eva Janská and Dita Čermáková , (Charles University, Prague)	Ukrainian Migrants in Czech Republic and Their Remittances - Who, How Much, How, Why and Under Which Circumstances? (What lessons can be learnt also for Moldovans in Czech republic?)
Prof. Milana Nikolko (Institute of European, Russian and Eurasian Studies, Carleton University, Canada).	Political Narratives of Trauma and Victimization among Contemporary Ukrainian-Canadian Diaspora
Dr. Olexei Poznyak (Institute for Demography, National Academy of Sciences, Ukraine)	Transformation of Population Migration in Ukraine after the Collapse of the Soviet Union

Stream II

Popper room

25 November, Session I (Popper room): European and Eurasian perspectives of migration

Dr. Natalia Vlasova & Viacheslav Postavnin (Foundation Migration 21 century, Russia)	Russian migration policy: future choice or return to the past
---	---

Dr. Larissa Emelyanova & Anna Lyalina (Immanuel Kant Baltic Federal University, Russia)	Assessment of diaspora's potential in migrants' integration: a comparative analysis of some European and Russian practices
Prof. Sergey V. Ryazantsev, Marina N. Khramova, Gadzhimuradova Gyl'nara (Institute Socio-Political Research of RAN, Moscow)	The reasons and consequences of the migration crisis in Europe

Lunch 13:40 – 14:30

25 November, Session II (Popper room): Ukrainian migration and crisis: life before and after

Dr. Olena Malinovskaya (National Institute for Strategic studies, Ukraine)	Migration of the population of Ukraine in the context of civilizational choice.
Dr. Alexander Ganchev (Odessa University, Ukraine)	Seasonal labor migrations from Ukraine to Finland: the actors of migration 'service'
Dr. Irina Pribytkova (Kiev Moghilian Academy)	Post –Soviet transition of Migration in Ukraine
Dr. Vladimir Mukomel (Institute of Sociology, RAS Moscow)	The Ukrainian forced migration to Russia, 2014-2015: discourses and perceptions of the local population

Coffee break 16:10 - 16: 40

25 November, Stream II (Popper room): Problems of Return migration

Dr. Abashin Sergey (European University, St.Petersburg)	Labor migrants: Crisis, Deportations, and return home
Dr. Vera Peshkova (Institute of Sociology, RAS)	Migration Plans: Narratives and Practices of Labor Migrants from Central Asia in Russia
Dr. Olga Brednikova (Center of Sociological research St-Petersburg)	"(Non-)returners: Can migrant workers become the "returnees"?"
Dr. Arytiynova Ekaterina (Institute of Sociology RAS, Moscow)	Problems of adaptation of temporary labour migrants from Central Asia in rural areas of the Russian South

26 November 2016

Stream I

Gellner room

26 November, Stream I, (Gellner room): 9:00 Integration in new communities

Dr. Nonna Kushnirovich (Institute for Immigration and Social Integration Ruppim Academic Center, Israel)	Economic integration of FSU immigrants in Israel
Dr. Elena Sadovskaya (Think Tank, Kazakhstan)	Changing contours of the Central Asian sub-regional migration system and its shift eastward to China in the 21st century (Case study of Kazakhstan)
Dr. Sabina Lissitsa & Svetlana Chachashvili-Bolotin (Ariel University & Ruppim Academic Center, Israel)	Do cognitive skills enhance job autonomy among FSU immigrants in Israel?

Coffee break 11:00 -11: 30

25 November, Stream I, Session V (Gellner room) : Global, Regional and local migration pattern

Dr. Nodira Kholmatova (European University Institute, Florence, Italy)	Changing the Face of Labor Migration? Feminization of Labor Migration from Tajikistan to Russia
Dr. István Horváth Tamás Kiss (Romanian Institute for Research on National Minorities)	Depopulating semi-periphery? Longer term dynamics of migration and socio-economic development in Romania
Dr. Sanja Tepavcevic (CEU, Budapest)	Entrepreneurship and migration in the West: Mapping Entrepreneurship of Russian-speaking Immigrants in Hungary
Dr. Agarin Timofey & Sergei Krivov , (Queen's University Belfast/ Lobachevsky University Nizhni Novgorod)	One click away from home: The impact of the ICT on societal integration in post-Soviet area

Lunch 13:30 – 14:30

Stream II

Popper room

26 November, 9:00 Stream II (Popper room): Adaptation of migrants from fSU countries

Kozlova Galina (Friedrich Naumann Foundation)	Processes of dissolution of USSR and creation of independent new member states in the discussion of youth in the programs of Friedrich Naumann Foundation"
Dr. Sivoplyasova Svetlana (Institute Socio-Political Research of RAS, Moscow)	Female emigration from Russia: scales, forms, consequences
Dr. Omelchenko D. Maximova S., Noyanzina O. Goncharova Natalia. , (Altai State University)	Image of Migrant in the minds of population of border regions of Sibarian Russia
Dr. Cojocarui Olga Center of Migration Research, Warsaw	"Not as bad as in Siberia": Pioneer Migration Trajectories of Moldovans in Italy

Coffee break 11:00 -11: 30

26 November, Stream II (Popper room): - Migrants' perceptions and images

Dr. Elena PISMENNAYA, Roman MANSIN, Sharif Yu. AKRAMOV (Institute Socio-Political Research of RAS, Moscow)	Adaptation of migrant workers from the countries of East and South-East Asia on the Russian labor market
Prof. Svetlana Dryga, Elena Dementeva (Tomsk Polytechnic University, Russia)	Development of educational migration into secondary vocational institutions as the factor of well-being society: experience of fSU countries and modern problems
Dr. Maya Gelantia & Inga Nodia (Peoples` Friendship. University. Sukhumi State University, Georgian Agrarian University)	Intellectual Migration of Georgian Population

Lunch 13:30 – 14:30

Prof. Kahanec Martin (CEU, Budapest)	The European Migration Challenge: A Case for Free Mobility
15:00- 17:00 Roundtable discussion:
Future of Central, Eastern Europe and Central Asia - in growing co-operation between China, Western Europe and Russia?	