

The Doctoral School of Political Science, Public Policy and International Relations invites you to a round-table discussion:

How not to get a Phd?

1 FEBRUARY 2016 / 15:30 / MB 202

INVITATION / Times Higher Education's recent "10 steps to PhD failure" article has stirred debate in higher education about the most common pitfalls at graduate school. Join the Doctoral School's roundtable discussion where our faculty, fellows and recent graduates share their experiences on the matter.

PARTICIPANTS /

Matteo Fumagalli, PhD University of Edinburgh, Associate Professor, Head of International Relations Department

Indre Balcaite, PhD University of London, SOAS to be awarded, Postdoctoral Research Fellow, Department of International Relations

Andras Szalai, PhD CEU, Assistant Professor, ELTE

Mate Nikola Tokic, PhD University of Pennsylvania, Visiting Humanities Professor, Department of International Relations

Carl Nordlund, Phd Lund University, Postdoctoral Research Fellow, Department of Political Science

Philipp Thaler, Phd CEU

Bernhard Knoll-Tudor, PhD EUI, Director of the Global Policy Academy, SPP, CEU

RSVP to Peter Visnovitz at ds@ceu.edu

For more information, see <http://pds.ceu.edu/>