

Organized by
CEU Center for EU Enlargement Studies (CENS)
CEU Roma Access Programs (RAP)

&

Rafto Foundation for Human Rights, Rafto Free Speech to Overcome “Hate Speech” Program

The Damages of Anti-Gypsyism and Tools for Improved Responses

Part I of the Colloquium, The Damages of “Hate Speech” & Tools for Improved Responses
October Hall, CEU School of Public Policy, Október 6. utca 7.

Thursday, March 17th, 2016, 09:30-19:00

Initiator and main organizer of the colloquium is Rafto Laureate 1989 Peter Molnár, co-founder of the Rafto Free Speech to Overcome “Hate Speech” Program, with Rafto Laureates 1997 Ian Hancock and 2011 Frank Mugisha.

SUBJECTS: History and identity of Roma/Types and damages of anti-Gypsyism/Tools for improved responses

SPEAKERS: Ian Hancock, University of Texas at Austin; Ágnes Daróczi, Roma Elder intellectual and activist; Orhan Galjus, Radio Patrín; Torgeir Skorgen, University of Bergen; Tatjana Perić, OSCE/ODIHR Contact Point for Roma and Sinti Issues; Senada Sali, Alumna, CEU Roma Graduate Preparation Program (RGPP), Legal Trainee at European Roma Rights Centre (ERRC); Iulius Rostas, Institute of Advanced Studies at Central European University; Bernard Rorke, ERRC; Annegret Ehman, Historian and former educational director at the Memorial and Educational Centre House of the Wannsee Conference in Berlin; Jelena Jovanovic, CEU Center for Policy Studies; Nadir Redžepi, Executive Director, Roma Education Fund; Máté Dezső, Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Centre for Social Sciences; Tímea Junghaus, art historian and curator; Gábor Daróczi, Director, Romaversitas and Chairman of the Board of Chance for Children Foundation; Péter Molnár, CEU Center for EU Enlargement Studies.

~Reception to follow~