

Roma Graduate Preparation Program

Student Presentations 2018-2019

---

Detailed Program

Monday, June 17

Location: Central European University, Budapest, Nádor u. 15 Room 101

9.00: Registration

9.30-09.40: Welcome remarks by: Liviu Matei, Provost and Professor of Higher Education Policy at the School of Public Policy, CEU

09.40- 9.50: Background of the Roma Graduate Preparation Program, Angéla Kóczé, Academic Director of RGPP and Assistant Professor of Romani Studies Program, CEU

9.50-10.15: Keynote speech by Nikola Ludlova, former RGPP student, PhD Candidate at the Department of History, CEU

10.15-10.25 Questions & Answers

10.25-10.50: 'Mapping of research on Roma children in the European Union'- Experts and students collaborative work
Presenting the key points in the report, Kevin Byrne and Judit Szira, Experts and authors of the report
Lessons learned from the collaboration, Albi Veizi student –RGPP alumnus

10.50-11.00: Questions & Answers

11.00-11:20 Coffee break

11.20-12.00: Student Presentations Panel 1: Discourses and representations

Chair and Discussant: Tibor Rácz – RGPP alumnus

Dragana Kokora - Analysis of news and comments about Roma people on the regional portal N1

Natali Tomenko - Roma as fortune tellers in the Soviet and American cartoons of 1973

12.00-12.15: Questions & Answers

12.15-13.30: Lunch break

13.30-15.00: Student Presentations Panel 2, The situation of Roma in the Western Balkan

Chair and Discussant: Fridon Lala –RGPP alumnus

Dzenifer Dzeladin - Segregation in primary schools in Macedonia and the impact on further education of Roma children

Adnan Schubert - A micro-study of Roma migration from Banjaluka, Bosnia and Herzegovina

Tomljenovic Azemina - From theory to practice: Local Action Plans for Roma integration in Bosnia and Herzegovina 2017-2020

15.00-15.30: Questions & Answers

15:30-16.00: Coffee break

16:00-16.30: Student Presentations Panel 3, Hate crime and structural violence

Chair and Discussant: Adrienn Kovács – RGPP alumna

Aleksandra Koriak - Hate crimes against Roma in Ukraine

Judit Jóni - Roma minority schools: The difference between minority and segregated schools

16.30-16.50: Questions & Answers

16.50-17.00: Closing words

17.00-17.30 Reception (wine & cheese)

Tuesday, June 18

Location: Central European University, Budapest, Nádor u. 15 Room 101

10.00-10.05: Welcome remarks by Iulius Rostas, Chair of Romani Studies, CEU

10.05-10.50: Student Presentations Panel 4, Politics and Public Policy

Chair and Discussant: Michal Mizigar –RGPP alumnus

Sebair Selmani - Machine Learning: Artificial neural network and linear regression methods with a case-study

Eglantina Aliu - Electoral systems

Miroslav Mitras - Roma members of the European Parliament: How have they made it?

10.50-11.20: Questions & Answers

11:20-11.50: Coffee break

11.20-12.15: Student Presentations Panel 5, Politics of Liberation

Chair and Discussant: Roman Zimenko – RGPP alumnus

Yaqoub Erzsébet Lisa - The nature of revolution through Sudan's recent example 2019

Burcu Kisac - Art, racism and violence

Dorina Azemi - Islam feminism

10.50-11.20: Questions & Answers

12:45-12:50 Closing remarks by Iulius Rostas, Chair of Romani Studies, CEU