

The Damages of Anti-Gypsyism and Tools for Improved Responses

Central European University, Budapest
Október 6. utca 7, October Hall
17 March (Thursday) 2016, 9:30 am - 18:00 pm

09:30 Welcoming Remarks

Solveig Moldrheim, Head of Education, Rafto Foundation

Iver Ørstavik, Senior Adviser for Human Rights, Rafto Foundation

Péter Molnár, Rafto Laureate 1989, CEU Center for EU Enlargement Studies

Ian Hancock, Rafto Laureate 1997, University of Texas at Austin

Senada Sali, Alumni, CEU Roma Graduate Preparation Program, Legal Trainee at European Roma Rights Centre (ERRC)

09.50 Session 1 – The history and identity of Roma people

“The Origins of Anti-Gypsyism”- Ian Hancock, University of Texas at Austin

“The need of a paradigm shift – analysis of the problems and their use against Roma”
- Ágnes Daróczi, Roma Elder intellectual and activist

“‘Gypsyism’ and ‘Gipsy character’”– Orhan Galjus, Radio Patrín

“Inventing the ‘Asocials’: The Case of the Scandinavian Roma” - Torgeir Skorgen, University of Bergen

Moderator: Iver Ørstavik

11:20 Break

11:45 Session 2 – Types and damages of Anti-Gypsyism

“Combatting Hate Speech, Racism and Incitement against Roma and Sinti in Election Campaigns” - Tatjana Peric, CPRSI at Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe OSCE

“Discrimination and hate speech against Romani women in accessing public services” - Senada Sali, Legal Trainee at European Roma Rights Centre (ERRC)

“Anti-Gypsyism as a system of oppression” – Iulius Rostas, Institute of Advanced Studies at Central European University

“Beyond the thugs: Elite anti-Gypsyism and its consequences” - Bernard Rorke, European Roma Rights Center

Moderator: Ian Hancock

13:15 Lunch for all invited

14:15 Session 3 – Didactic methods and tools for improving responses to Anti-Gypsyism

“Education for Roma by Roma” – Annegret Ehman, Historian and former educational director at the Memorial and Educational Centre House of the Wannsee Conference in Berlin

“Anti-Roma Discourse on Trafficking, and how to change it” - Jelena Jovanovic, CEU Center for Policy Studies

“Anti-Roma racism as an academic sin – how to change it” - Nadir Redzeqi, Executive Director, Roma Education Fund

“Roma LGBTQ identity constructions and the impact of the social resilience” - Máté Dezső, Hungarian Academy of Sciences Centre for Social Sciences - Institute for Minority Studies (HAS CSS- IMS), Junior Research Fellow

Moderator: Péter Molnár

15:45 Break

16:15 Session 4 - Didactic methods and tools for improving responses to Anti-Gypsyism (cont.)

Slam Poetry, and parts of the “Hate Speech” Monologues (15 minutes)

“Contemporary Art against Anti-Gypsy Visual Propaganda“- Tímea Junghaus, Art historian, Curator of Gallery

“Artistic and Legal Challenges to School Segregation (Institutionalized anti-Roma Speech) with Slam Poetry and Access to Information Claims” - Péter Molnár

“Fighting School Segregation and Supporting Higher Education of Roma Students”- Gábor Daróczi, Director, Romaversitas and Chairman of the Board of Chance for Children Foundation

Moderator: Ian Hancock

18:00 Reception

19:00 Dinner for speakers